What's Happening in the Library?

Contests and competitions are in full swing in the library:

- ◆ 11 students are competing in the Rockin' Readers contest with the leader having read over 40 books at this time. The competition ends at the end of the 9 weeks.
- ◆ 12 lucky students have won prizes instantly by finding pink winning tickets inside random books in the Hidden Book Contest.
- ◆ 13 students volunteered to join the first ever Aldine Middle School Name That Book Contest. The competition began at the elementary schools and is working its way up the grade levels. This is the first year in middle school. Students form teams of at least 6 that are responsible for reading and knowing 20 young adult books. In March, all the middle schools will compete to see which team can identify quotes from each of the books from memory. All 13 students are currently reading their first selected title.

Book Fair is Here!

Be sure to visit the library the week of October 5th to support the Book Fair.

The library will receive 20% of all purchases to use toward additional books for the school library as well as materials and reading incentives for students.

Feel free to shop for yourself or send interested students with a pass to shop.

We are open during Open House and will close Friday after lunches.

Book Club will begin this month

Our first selection will be a SciFi/Romance mix at the request of students!

We will read the book and meet at the beginning of next month during lunches to discuss and provide extension activities.
